For a more detailed description, see the program on IFMA23's website. Detailed program with time will be available when the trip starts.

More information about the professional visits, as well as about tourism and agriculture in the countries, will be available.

As a result of the tourist season, some participants will be accommodated in a hotel close to the listed hotel in Bergen and Laholm. The overnight stay on Saturday in Copenhagen is not included in this trip.

Transport will take place by bus from Flåm. Transport of luggage is arranged from Bergen to Flåm, so you only take your hand luggage on the train.
